

Living Super Product Update

In this Update

- Changes to the ING Living Super Investment Menu
- ING Superannuation fund name change

Changes to the ING Living Super Investment Menu

From 1 September 2017, we will be making the following changes to the ING Living Super Investment Menu:

- Addition of 79 new Exchange Traded Products (ETPs)
- Reclassification of ETPs
- Closure of ETPs

79 New ETPs

After collating and reviewing feedback from you and our customers we have expanded the Investment Menu with the addition of 79 new ETPs to cover a broader range of markets and industries around the globe.

To view the full list of ETPs available via Living Super, please click here.

Reclassification of ETPs

The Tier Allocation of three ETPs will be reclassified as follows:

Ticker	Living Super ETP Investment Menu Name	Tier Allocation (Current)	Tier Allocation (New)
QUS	BetaShares FTSE RAFI US 1000 ETF	1	2
IHVV	iShares S&P 500 AUD Hedged	1	2

VSO	Vanguard MSCI Australian Small Companies Index	2	3
-----	--	---	---

Closure of ETPs

After conducting a review of the Investment Menu, four ETPs will be closed to new investments:

Ticker	Living Super ETP Investment Menu Name
AGF	AMP Capital China Growth (AGF)
AMH	AMCIL Limited (AMH)
HHY	Hastings High Yield Fund (HHY)
WIC	Westoz Investment Company Limited (WIC)

What does this mean for you and your clients?

If your clients are currently invested in one of the ETP's that is being closed to new investments, you can keep their investment in the ETP or sell their shareholdings, however you will not be able to purchase any further holdings in that ETP.

ING DIRECT Superannuation fund name change to ING Superannuation fund

As part of the rebranding of ING DIRECT to ING, effective 1 September 2017, we are changing the name of the fund to the "ING Superannuation Fund".

We will also have a new web address, ing.com.au.
